Welcome to ASI JD MACDONALD: where innovation, speed and reliability provide peace of mind

JD MacDonald expanded into Washroom Accessories in 1959 - since then we have developed a following among Building Owners, Architects and Construction Professionals who count on us because we consistently deliver on a promise of quality, value, impeccable customer service and choice.

In 2013 JD MacDonald was acquired by the ASI Group and as the newly founded ASI JD MacDonald, we continue to provide more choices in hand dryers, paper towel dispensers, waste bins, combination units, grab rails, baby changing stations, soap dispensers, toilet paper dispensers and much more. Since then, we've expanded into toilet partitions, offering options in both structural and compact laminate.

ASI GROUP

Privately owned and operated since inception the ASI Group now has operating units and offices in the US, Canada, Australia, Belgium, UK, Middle East and China, with sales in over 50 countries.
