SECTION B - PROTECTION OF CREDIT INFORMATION - PRIVACY ACT 1988 (CTH) ("THE ACT")

Authority for disclosure of credit information to a credit reporting agency

I/We understand the Act allows you as a credit provider under the Act to give a credit reporting agency certain personal information about me/us which I/we authorise you to do. The information which may be given is covered by the Act and includes: limited identity particulars; the fact that I/we have applied for credit and the amount; the fact that you are a current credit provider to me/us; payments which become overdue more than sixty (60) days and for which collection action has commenced; advice that payments are no longer overdue; cheques drawn by me/us which have been dishonoured more than once; in specified circumstances, that in your opinion I/we have committed a serious credit infringement; and that credit provided to me/us by you has been paid or discharged.

Exchange of Information with other Credit Providers

In accordance with Section 18N(1)(b) of the Act, I/we agree that you may give to and obtain from any credit providers named in this credit application or in a credit report information about my/our credit arrangements which can include any information about my/our credit worthiness, credit standing, credit history or credit capacity that credit providers are allowed to give or receive under the Act and may be used to assess an application by me/us for credit; to assist me/us avoiding default on my/our credit obligations; to notify other credit providers of a default by me/us; or to assess my/our credit worthiness.
