

ID RECTANGULAR PAD MAXI

The ID Rectangular Pad Maxi offers discreet and reliable protection for individuals managing light to moderate urinary incontinence. Featuring a contoured shape and adhesive strip for secure placement, these pads fit comfortably in regular underwear to provide confidence and security throughout the day. The Maxi size provides extra coverage and absorbency, making it suitable for longer wear or overnight use. With its advanced absorption core and odour control technology, the ID Rectangular Pad Maxi ensures dryness and freshness, promoting skin health and comfort.
