

Gate Guard

The Carbine Gate Guard is a next-generation, high-security lock accessory designed for timber and metal gates. Fitting a high-security lock to a gate can be challenging. The Carbine Gate Guard's unique design overcomes this issue by allowing you to fit the most secure deadlocks and deadlatches onto metal or timber gates. The Carbine Gate Guard also includes protective flanges that shield the lock, providing added protection against intruder attacks.

- + 1.6mm steel plate
- + Durable powder coated black finish
- + Supplied with stainless steel screws
- + High corrosion resistance
- + 65mm backset (5mm allowance for gate frame offset)
- + Suitable for single or double gates of either metal or timber
- + Allows locks to be fitted to a gate quickly and easily
- + Suits locks such as Carbine Alpha and Lockwood models 303, 355, 001, 002 and equivalents
- + Supplied with reversible mounting plate for new and old model Lockwood 001