

TDL- Em Rex Cover Installation Guide

Features:

- Fits direct to the Em Rex unit to deter unintended / malicious activation
- Wires directly into the Em Rex terminals so as to activate the EmRex piezo when operated
- Separate set of contact for connection to the Access Control system for monitoring
- The clear cover clips down in place and cannot be accidentally operated
- The cover is made from polycarbonate to with stand long term operation without any deterioration
- The unit base fits behind the Em Rex unit before both parts are fitted to the wall
- The unit is also weather proof if it is sealed against the wall
- The connector output contacts are rated at 30Vdc and 200mA max. The contacts are N/C when the cover is closed
- The cover base in 92mm w x 153mm h

Wiring:

12Vdc feed from the
Access Control
System